

SunniBunni

Authentic FRESH, NON-FAT
FROZEN YOGURT

STAY SKINNY THROUGH THE HOLIDAYS

THERE'S NOTHING NAUGHTY ABOUT THIS LOW-CALORIE TREAT

During the holiday season, temptations come in all different flavors and packages: gingerbread men, tins filled with rich chocolate fudge, rum cakes lurking at every turn. It can be hard for anyone—even the strictest of dieters—to reach for the bowl of fruit instead of the tray of cookies.

Thank goodness for SunniBunni, and that sweet, tart and creamy frozen yogurt. It only seems decadent. Both the original and green tea flavors are made with real liquid yogurt (not the powdered mix like other local yogurt shops). Each is naturally flavored and provide 400 million live and active yogurt cultures per gram. Oh, and a four-ounce serving will only cost you 90 calories.

"The liquid yogurt that we use is one of the five foods a person should eat every day," says owner and founder, Alexandra Van Wie. "It's a true super food; plus, it's absolutely delicious."

Being the foodie that she is, Alex makes sure to carry the freshest organic toppings available. She also has items like chocolate-covered pomegranates and BunniBits (heavenly homemade coconut pineapple cookie crumbles) in case your sweet tooth goes beyond organic raspberries and mangos.

So instead of reaching for that cream-filled cupcake at the office, or serving yourself a ant piece of apple pie a la mode, take the family for yogurt. Or order SunniBunni for the holiday party. No one will notice it's healthy, and no one will miss that extra five pounds around their hips at the New Years party.
